Spectators: All are invited to bring a lawn chair or blanket and cheer on the Tigers!

Immunization Audit: On October 17, Grundy County Public Health will be completing an audit of our immunization records. If your child received new immunizations, please bring Diane a copy of the updated record before this date.

Chapel and Memory Work:

Friday's Chapel: Thank you to Dawson Ackerman, who is an area farmer and pastor at the Reformed Church of Stout, for speaking at Chapel this morning. Dawson began by having a student hold up his work gloves. They were definitely not clean! Then, Dawson asked, "Where in the Bible does it first speak of working?". A student answered with the correct answer of Genesis and the Garden of Eden. In Genesis 2:15 (NIV), it says, "The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it." Dawson reminded us of the importance of hard work and to do the best we can each day. Our most important job is to serve others, which can also be our hardest job, but we must be faithful servants. Put on your work "gloves" and use the gifts God has given you.

September 19 Chapel: We will welcome Adam Dohrn from Aplington's Student Connection.

Memory Work: September 8-19:

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

- 1st Peter 4:10
